

BULLETIN 11/08/2022

This bulletin covers the last two weeks of incidents. There has been a slight drop off of activity but this will no doubt pick up again in the next few weeks.

FUEL THEFT

Fuel thefts continue to be an issue across the country. Previously Fife and Angus featured heavily but again these thefts are more spread across the country.

Below are a note of the incidents and where they happened along with their crime report number;

20220729-0923

Leith, Edinburgh

Diesel stolen from company vehicles after the fuel tanks have been drilled.

20220803-0599

Sanquhar, Dumfries and Galloway

Quantity of fuel stolen from fuel bowser

PS-20220804-1375

Larkhall, Lanarkshire

Quantity of fuel stolen along with digger Rosyth bucket

PS-20220811-0714

Rosyth, Fife

Quantity of fuel stolen

For more information on how to reduce the risk of fuel theft click on Fuel Theft \(securedbydesign.com\) Here you can also download a crime prevention guide for Construction sites.

THEFTS AND DAMAGE TO PLANT AND MACHINERY

Theft and damage to plant and machinery can be particularly disruptive and expensive.

Below is details of an incident and where it happened along with the incident number.

20220801-0747

Dunoon, Argyll and Bute

Forestry machinery stolen from site.

OTHER THEFTS AND CRIMES

The other crimes that have been reported are as follows. There has been a pattern of cable thefts from a variety of sites. Please ensure that all cable is stored away securely and out of site

Below are a note of the incidents and where they happened along with their incident number.

20220729-0923

Dundee

Site broken into and transformers stolen.

20220731-3951

Forfar, Angus

Suspicious incident after vehicle drove up to informant's lorry and occupants were looking at the cable on the trailer.

20220808-2215

Dundee City

Site broken into and tools stolen

PS-20220811-0765

Fofar, Angus

Batteries stolen from temporary traffic signals

Construction
Watch SCOTLAND

Delivered by Neighbourhood Watch Scotland

REPORTING

Should you recognise any of the incidents and have any information, please contact Police Scotland on 101 or report information anonymously via the charity Crimestoppers on 0800555111.

SPREAD THE WORD

Please feel free to share this information with anyone you think this Alert may be relevant to.

Anyone can sign up to receive Alerts - just scan this QR code and follow the simple steps.

